viewpoints
in teaching and learning

Index

Journal of the School of Education / Indiana University Volume 55 1979

No. 1 Science Education: A Probe for Tomorrow. 122 pp., $3.95

Science--A Basic Study
Holistic Science: Which Part of the Learner are You Touching?
Piagetian Research as Applied to Teaching Science to Secondary and College Students
The Use of Learner Aptitudes in Research
Improving Science Education Through Instructional Technology
Science Curriculum Content Selection
Readability of Science Materials
Science and the Physically Handicapped
Integrated and Functional Science Preparation of the Elementary Education Major: A Model
Closing the Gap Between Research and Practice

No. 2 Secondary Education: A Time of Crisis and Creativity. 113 pp., $3.95

Battered Schools: Violence and Vandalism in Public Education
Where Are the Students and Teachers? Student and Teacher Absenteeism in Secondary Schools
Questions About Competency
Optional Schools: Pipedream or Probability?
Reports on the Reform of Secondary Education: An In-Depth Analysis
Our Secondary Schools Have Not Succeeded...Not Yet
Individualizing Instruction in the Secondary School: Guidelines for Program Development
Secondary Schools: New Optimism in a Time of Trouble

No. 3 Early Childhood Education in Perspective. 105 pp., $3.95

Bridging the Gap Between Nursery School, Kindergarten, and Primary Experiences: Continuity in Early Childhood Experience
Mediating the Impact of Competency Testing on Early Childhood Education
Prekindergarten Screening: Point-Counterpoint
Gifted Children in Early Childhood Education
Coping with the Behaviorally Disturbed Child in the Classroom
Multicultural Early Childhood Education
The Use of Volunteers and Parents in Mainstreaming
Child Care Alternatives and Options for Parents
New Dimensions in Day Care Needs and Services
Past Research and Current Perspectives on Head Start and Follow Through Humanistic Early Childhood Education--A Challenge Now and in the Future

No. 4 Influences on the Development of Child and Youth: International Perspectives. $3.95

The International Year of the Child: Human Rights as if People Mattered
Expanding Global Education
Child is the Father of Man--and Man of the Child: A Policy Analysis of Adult Literacy Versus Universal Primary Education
The Future of Television in the Lives of Children
Student Pressures in Japanese Education: The Problem of the Entrance Examination Hell

Available from Education/Publications

School of Education, Room 109, Indiana University

Bloomington, Indiana 47405